Underwood, partners under the firm name of "Hull, Grummond & Co.," plaintiffs, vs. O. G. Hull, defendant. Now, on this 4th day of March, 1898, come the above named plaintiffs, by their attorney, and having shown to the court that they did, op the 12th day of November, 1888, recover in said court a Judgment against the above named defendant. O. G. Hull, for the sum of two thousand five hundred and twenty and 75-100 (22, 20-75) dollars and costs, as appears by the records of this court; and that said judgment remains wholly unsatisfied, and that the whole amount thereof is due and unpaid; that the whole amount thereof is due and unpaid; that the lien of said judgment on the land and tenements of said defendant expired on the lath day of November, 1891, 4nd praying the court that said judgment may be revived and the lien thereof-continued against the real estate of said defendant, O. G. Hull, and the application having been taken up and considered. It was ordered by the court that a writ of scire faciasis issue to said defendant, O. G. Hull, his terre-tenants and other persons occupying or claiming any of the lands of said O. G. Hull, in Jackson county, Missouri, commanding him and them to appear before our circuit court of Jackson county, Missouri, at the next term thereof, and on the first day of said term, to-wit, on the lith day of April, 1888, and show cause, if any they have, why said judgment, in form aforesaid as rendered, and the lien thereof on the lands and tenements of said defendant, be not revived according to the force and effect of 1838, and show cause, if any they have, why said Judgment, in form aforesaid as rendered, and the iten thereof on the lands and tenements of said defendant, be not revived according to the force and effect of said judgment, and, further, to do what our said circuit court shall then and there determine concerning them. And, it now appearing to the court that said O. G. Hull is a non-resident of the state of Missouri, and can not be served in this state except by publication, it is ordered by the court that publication be made notifying said O. G. Hull, his terre-tenants and persons occupying or claiming his lands in Jackson county, Missouri, that an application for a scire facias to revive said judgment, and also the lien of said judgment, has been made as aforesaid, and that the court has made an order that a scire facias be issued, and that unless said defendant or his terretenants, or persons occupying or claiming his lands in said county, be and appear at the next term of court, to be holden at the circuit court house, in Kansas City, Jackson county, Missouri, on the lith day of April, 1888, or on or before the third day thereof, and then and there show cause why the said judgment, in form aforesaid, as rendered, should not be revived, and the llen thereof upon the real estate of said O. G. Hull in said county should not be continued, the said judgment whill be revived and the lien thereof revived and continued. It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in The Kansas City Journal, a newspaper published in said Jackson county, for three weeks, the last insertion to be two wocks before the commencement of the term at which the parties are required to appear.
